

Math for the people, by the people.

diameter

Canonical name	Diameter12
Date of creation	2013-03-22 15:11:24
Last modified on	2013-03-22 15:11:24
Owner	marijke (8873)
Last modified by	marijke (8873)
Numerical id	7
Author	marijke (8873)
Entry type	Definition
Classification	msc 05C12
Related topic	Graph
Related topic	ClosedPath
Related topic	DistanceInAGraph

The diameter of a connected graph (or multigraph or pseudograph) is the largest distance that occurs in it.

Here distance, between two nodes (vertices), refers to the length of the shortest path between them.

In disconnected graphs the diameter is undefined (sometimes it is said to be infinite).